Contempt Petition No. 106 of 2005

PETITIONER: Kanhaiya Singh Thakur

Vs.

RESPONDENTS: S.L. Sao & another

ORAL ORDER

(Passed on 1st March, 2007)

Alleging that the respondents have disobeyed the interim directions issued by this Court in W.P. No. 403 of 2005 the petitioner is before me in this Contempt Petition with a request to initiate contempt proceedings against the respondents for their willful and deliberate disobedience of the order passed by this Court.

Admittedly, the order passed by this Court is an exparte order. The petitioner is expected to bring to the notice of the respondents about the interim order passed by this Court. If the respondents are not made known about the interim order passed by this Court it cannot be expected of them to obey the orders and directions issued by this Court. It is not asserted in the petition that the petitioner has brought to the notice of the respondents about the interim order passed by this Court. In the absence of such assertion, it is not a fit case to initiate contempt proceedings against the respondents. Therefore, petition is rejected.
